

Malcolm, Bridget, James & Matthew's Christmas 2025 Newsletter

Some of the standing columns at Pompeii

Holidays

Bridget & Malcolm travelled by train to Italy, via St Moritz to re-visit a shrinking glacier.

The shrinking Morteratsch glacier in Switzerland

Adjusting the tower at Pisa

Matthew & Hannah went up the Chimney lift at Battersea Power Station

Bridget had her eyes reglazed, one at a time

Bridget, Matthew & Malcolm at Greenbelt Festival

Ginger, the only one left of our lockdown chickens, was joined by Salt, Nutmeg & Pepper

Christmas traditions

We were all in the pantomime “Frosted”

The wonderful Christmas lights at Kew Gardens

Christmas morning at church

Birthdays

James celebrated with Uni friends at his second home, the Natural History Museum, and at his first home with local friends.

Matthew was 25, and joined with two other friends to have a joint “75th Birthday”, while Bridget had her first birthday in years with childhood friend Katharine.

